COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Intern Leadership Development Course (ILDC) is a 5-day course for DA and local interns.

ILDC teaches about:

- The US Army organization and the interns' roles in it;
- Personal learning style and how it supports the Army's leadership competencies of communication, team development, decision making, and professional ethics;
- Team building and group dynamics;
- Leadership styles that provide purpose, direction, and motivation and when to use the appropriate style;
- Individual values and how they affect decisions and professional ethics

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course completion is predicated on attendance at all training sessions, and completion of all required homework.

TRAINING METHOD(S)

Because adults learn better by doing, the course is presented using the Experiential Learning Model and not the traditional classroom environment.

SPECIAL NOTES

ILDC requires individual and group participation and interaction.

Dress: Participants are encouraged to wear casual clothes (blue jeans, slacks, tennis shoes, etc.) to facilitate comfortable participation in the numerous leadership exercises.

ENROLLMENT

Supervisors or training coordinators should contact the course manager to obtain spaces for their organization's interns. A DD Form 1556 must be faxed to the course manager, John Bentley, FAX 256-876-3627 or DSN 746-3627.

Note to Redstone Arsenal Interns: Initiating a training request in TIP does not secure a space in the course. You must contact John Bentley at 256-842-6664 for a space in the course and FAX an approved DD form 1556.

DISCLAIMER

Participants may be excused from any portion of a training program that they feel conflicts with their religious beliefs or creates high levels of emotional response or psychological stress. Individuals that require special accommodations should contact the course manager listed above.
